1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This Privacy Notice provides information about how Nualtra Limited, a company registered in Ireland under company registration no. 516122 ("Nualtra", "we", "our", "us") collects and processes the personal data of individuals ("you"," your") who visit and/or interact with our website www.nualtra.com (the "Website") and to all subsequent correspondence or communications with those people, whether by email, telephone or by post.
- 1.2 Nualtra is a "controller" of your personal data. This means that we are responsible for deciding the purposes and means by which we use the personal data we hold about you. "Personal data" is any information by which you or any living person can be individually identified either directly or directly but does not include anonymised data. There are "special categories" of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection.
- 1.3 As a controller, we must provide you with this privacy statement to you in accordance with Irish data protection laws, including the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018, as such laws may be updated from time to time (" Data Protection Laws"). In brief this Privacy Notice explains:
 - what personal data of yours we hold and why we process it;
 - the legal grounds that allow us to process your personal data;
 - where we obtain your personal data, who gets to see it and how long we keep it;
 - your data protection rights; and

- where to address queries or complaints.
- 1.4 This Privacy Notice does not form part of any contract, or offer to enter into a contract, with us. It may be amended by us at any time. We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Notice at any time, for any reason, without notice to you, other than the posting of the amended Privacy Notice on the Website. We recommend that you check the Website often, referring to the date of the last modification listed at the top.
- 1.5 It is important that you read this Privacy Notice so that you are aware of how and why we are using your personal data. Please see Section 11(YOUR DATA PROTECTION RIGHTS) and Section 13 (QUERIES AND COMPLAINTS) for further information about your rights and how to exercise those rights.

2 HOW WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL DATA

We may receive your personal data through various means including:

- Direct interactions:
 - We obtain your Identity Data and Contact Data when you contact us and when you give us feedback.

6 THIRD PARTY INFORMATION

6.1 Other individuals' personal data

• Where you provide us with personal data relating to other people, you represent and warrant that you will only do so in accordance with applicable law, including Data Protection Laws. You will ensure that before doing so, the individuals in question are made aware of the fact that we will hold information relating to them and that we may use it for any of the purposes set out in this Privacy Notice and where necessary you will obtain their consent to our use of their information. You will provide anyone that you provide us with personal data about with a copy of this Privacy Notice. We may notify those individuals that you have provided their details to us.

6.2 Information collected through third-party links and content

• This Website may include links to other websites and other content from third party businesses and can offer direct interaction with external websites, networks or platforms that are outside our control. These third-party businesses may use cookies, web beacons or other similar technology to collect information about you. We do not have access to or control over these third parties or the cookies, web beacons or other technology that these third parties may use. We are not responsible for the security, privacy of the information collected by these third parties or the privacy practices of these third parties or the content on any third-party website. You are encouraged to review the privacy policies of the different websites you visit.

7 DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

- 7.1 We reserve the right to disclose your personal data to third parties:
 - if we are under any legal or regulatory duty to do so; and
 - to protect our rights or the safety of us, our personnel, users or others.
- 7.2 We also use third party service providers as our processors to only hold and use personal data on our behalf in order to provide us with a service. We may also disclose personal data to our professional advisors and experts in order to obtain their assistance in carrying out our services and our activities. We require these parties to keep your personal data confidential and secure and to protect it in accordance with the law. They are only permitted to process your personal data for the lawful purpose for which it has been shared and in accordance with our instructions.

8 TRANSFERS OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

8.1 In connection with our business and for administrative, management and legal purposes, we may transfer your personal data to jurisdictions outside of the European Economic Area. Where we need to transfer your personal data, we shall ensure that the transfer is lawful and that there are appropriate security arrangements.

9 SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

- 9.1 Nualtra is committed to maintaining the security of your personal data it processes. Nualtra maintains appropriate physical, procedural, organisational and technical security measures intended to prevent loss, misuse, unauthorised access, disclosure, or modification of your personal data under Nualtra's control. We also limit access to your personal data within our organisation and to third parties that need access to your information in provision of service to us. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and are required to protect personal data. If you have reason to believe that your personal data is no longer secure, please notify us immediately using the contact information supplied in Section 13 (Queries and Complaints).
- 9.2 Please be aware that when you transmit information to us or to our service providers over the internet or another telecommunications network this can never be guaranteed to be 100% secure. For any payments which we take from you or pay to you online we will use a recognised third party online secure payment system, and we are not responsible for the security of this system. You should contact these third parties for information about the security of these internet, telecommunications systems or payment systems if you need further information.
- 9.3 We cannot guarantee against any loss, misuse, unauthorised disclosure, alteration or destruction of data but we take reasonable steps to prevent this from happening. We have put in place measures to protect the security of your personal data and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

10 RETENTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

10.1 We endeavour to ensure that personal data is kept as current as possible, and that irrelevant or excessive data is deleted or made anonymous as soon as reasonably practicable. We generally retain personal data for as long as is required to satisfy the purpose for which it was collected. We are required to keep certain types of information for a specific period of time in order to comply with legal requirements. Some of your personal data may need to be retained because of circumstances such as a legal dispute or regulatory investigation, which would not normally be subject to retention.

11 YOUR DATA PROTECTION RIGHTS

- 11.1 You have various rights under data protection laws, subject to certain exemptions, in connection with our processing of your personal data. These rights are free of charge and include the right to:
 - Gain access to and copies of your personal data. You are entitled to receive, on request and free of charge, a copy of all your personal data that we hold. There are some limitations to this right. For example, if the personal data also relates to another person and we do not have that person's consent. Where there is data that we cannot disclose, we will explain this to you.
 - Ensure that your personal data is accurate. You may request that inaccurate or incomplete information is corrected and updated by us.

- Withdraw consent. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. If you withdraw your consent, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before your withdrawal. Please not that if you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain services to you.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This right enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing. However, where we hold and process your personal data in order to comply with legal obligations, such as compliance with financial auditing or for the establishment exercise or defense of legal claims, your right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data is limited.
- Object to our processing of your personal data. You may object to our processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) in order to justify the basis for our processing your personal data and there is something about your particular situation which makes you wish to object to processing on this ground.
- Request that we restrict processing of your personal data. This right enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data (e.g. if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it).
- Data Portability. Where we process your personal data by automated means (i.e., not on paper) and this processing is based on your consent or required for the performance of a contract between us, you are entitled, where technically feasible to request that we transmit your personal data in this format to another controller.
- Not be subject to solely automated decision. You have the right to be informed if your personal data will be subject to automated decision making, including profiling, where that decision impacts on your legal rights. Profiling is an automated form of processing of personal data often used to analyse or predict personal aspects about an individual person. We do not engage in profiling.
- 11.2 We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the personal data, or to exercise any of your other rights. We may ask you to provide us with your current name and address, proof of identity (a copy of your driving license, passport or two different utility bills that display your name and address), and once verified we will delete this data. This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

12 UPDATING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

12.1 You are responsible for notifying us of any changes to your personal data that you provide to us.

13 QUERIES AND COMPLAINTS

13.1 If you have any questions or wish to exercise any of your rights, please contact us by emailing support@nualtra.ie. You have the right to lodge a complaint regarding our processing of your personal data with the Data Protection Commission. The Commission's contact details are available at https://dataprotection.ie/en/contact/how-contact-us
